WOW: Where do Spiders Hide?

Saturday, September 24th,
10:30am-12:00pm

Find out about spiders and all kinds of other small critters that live in the woodlands. Dr. Grant is a professor emeritus of biology at Davidson College, a consultant with Discovery Place, and an adjunct curator at Schiele Museum. We'll be exploring a nature preserve in Davidson during the best time of year for spiders and other insects as they are all getting ready for winter.

This outing is for children with their families. The minimum age is 6 years old. Wear sturdy footwear with socks and consider wearing long sleeves and long pants. We will be on and off trails in open woodland. Remember to bring water. Please, no dogs and strollers.

Pre-registration is required. To register, please send an email to dlc.wow@gmail.com with the names of all the participants (parents and children), ages of the children, any allergies and a phone number.

Location and directions will be sent to those with confirmed registration. At the site, we'll ask you to sign a waiver form. Please note that registration closes at 5pm, Friday, September 23.

Please do not send registration requests to Davidson Lands Conservancy. Registration is not available on the DLC website. All registration requests and any other questions about this outing or other WOW events must be emailed to dlc.wow@gmail.com.

If you have registered, but then find you're unable to attend, please contact WOW as soon as possible so that another family can attend: dlc.wow@gmail.com.
