Vote for the DLC Tree- Christmas in Davidson begins Thursday!

VOTE - Nov. 30-Dec. 2, 2017 from 6p-9pm

The Davidson Lands Conservancy is once again represented in our lovely Rotary Davidson Christmas in Davidson! Board member Christine Lisiewski has been hard at work again decorating a conservation-themed tree. You can buy a ticket for $1 and vote for your favorite Christmas tree. The tree with the most $1 votes gets a special donation from the Rotary Club of Davidson in addition to a special donation from each vote over the course of the three days of Christmas in Davidson. Thank you also to the Lake Norman Group of RE/MAX for again sponsoring the DLC. Please come check out the tree in Davidson each day, and vote early and often!

#GivingTuesday-Roy Alexander Internship

Davidson College

As you are thinking about end of the year gifts, remember the Internship Fund at Davidson College! There was a wonderful and the Internship on Davidson College's website:

Annual Meeting Wrap-Up 2017

Sunday, Nov 12, 2017

Thanks so much to all who attended our DLC Annual Meeting earlier this month at the Pines annual business meeting, we welcomed new Board members, Cambria Nielsen and Tom Wa to outgoing Board members, Lyn Batty and June Kimmel. We also auctioned off several bird built by our late Director, Roy Alexander. DLC gave its first Environmental Stewardship award to the Tarheel Trailblazers for their tremendous trail work at Fisher Farm. Lastly, for those who Mark Stanback and Rob Van Epps led bird walks around the Pines campus. Thank you to our friends, and volunteers who support us on an almost daily basis. Onward!

New Insect Book Available!

Third book in our Backyard Book series

Hot off the press, and just in time for the holidays! Our newest book in our Backyard Books series, Backyard Insects, is now available! In addition to our Davidson's Backyard Birds and Backyard Butterflies, you can now purchase Backyard Insects for $10 from DLC or at Main Street Books -- Davidson, NC (all three for a discounted $25!). These books make for great stocking stuffers this time of year.
